The Curious case of “The Vima Design Mobile”

Yes!!!! The Vima Design Mobile is in a Hollywood picture. For all of you who recognized the Vima Design Mobile in the recently released movie “The Curious case of Benjamin Button” Directed by David Fincher, starring Brad Pitt and Cate Blanchett, YOU ARE RIGHT.

In the summer of 2007, some sections of the movie were filmed in Old Montreal. The scenes taking place in Paris, France where mostly filmed in Montreal and made to look like Paris in the 1950's and 60's. Some of Montreal's best restored French Citroen vehicles were rented for the movie.

The Vima Mobile is featured 3 times in one of the most critical scenes of the movie. It is one of the vehicles involved in the accident that hits the female star played by Cate Blanchett. The Vima Mobile was used as is with only the name changed to “MOULIN DE L'ÉCLUSIER PATISSERIE”.

Other news from Vima Design

“2008 was another outstanding year for West Islands most recommended kitchen store Cuisines Vima Design” says the owner Georges Roy. For 2009 Vima Design has DOUBLED the size of their Baie D'Urfe showroom. More space, more demonstration kitchens, more counter tops selections, more door styles, more spectacular colors and finishes. Also Vima Design has improved their web site www.vimadesign.com and Vima Design showcases appliances in 6 kitchen styles in the J.C. Perreault Kirkland store.

Most of Vima's new business comes from references from existing customers.
